IT is a hard matter to day to find young people who had opera glasses at the opera house last night. They are kicking because they didn't take Lady Hilda tele-scope with them.

HAD the "Pinfure" troupe engaged Prof Goodman's orchestra last night the musical part of the entertainment would have been a No. 1. The scrapping of the gonging violinist, and the thumping of the four-eyed "pianist" were most execrably painful.

WE are now able to supply the demand for a good, solid, serviceable and neat walking shoe for $1.00. Call and see them, at Barber & Baker's. Feb. 11-dwtf

PHARMACEUTICAL.—This society met at the high school building last evening, the president being in the chair. After the disposal of general and special business, splendid recitations were given by Miss Lizzie Murphy and Miss Frankie L. Taylor.

The audience was favored with music by Fred J. Wessels and Miss Adele Schellberger. The debate, "Resolved, That women should be allowed to vote," was participated in by Will Goodwin and Cyrus Randolph on the affirmative side, and A. V. Andrews and Logan McPherson on the negative side. The speeches were prepared with care, and were delivered with great earnestness and power.

The decision of the judges was for the affirmative. The question for debate next Friday evening is, "Resolved, That the application, First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen, should be applied to Napoleon Bonaparte instead of George Washington."

Literary exercises of the usual interesting character may be expected.

THE SINGIN' SKOWL.—Aunt Polly has her singing skowl promises to be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season. Monday and Tuesday evenings the "skowl" will be in session, and all who desire to have an hour of genuine innocent amusement should be present. The Washington Post speaks as follows:

"Aunt Polly Basset and her 'goodie company' entertained a large and appreciative audience last night at Lincoln Hall. Her 'big boy' Jodeland, added to remarkable comic talent, the possession of vocal resources of more than usual compass and melody. It affords us pleasure to commend this performance, and advise a large audience this evening."

CUT with GLASS.—Last night Frank Sibley, son of Dr. B. F. Sibley, went to the coffin factory to spend the night with a young man who is night watchman there. Some time during the night young Sibley went into a dark room for some purpose, when he accidentally stepped through the glass in a child's burial case, and as he took his foot out suddenly the sharp edge of the broken glass severed an artery in his foot, causing an alarming hemorrhage. Dr. R. L. Walston was called, and the flow of blood was stopped for the time being, but this morning the bleeding started afresh, and for awhile threatened serious consequences. By active treatment, however, the hemorrhage was again checked, and it is hoped that the wound will soon heal. Had the boy been alone the chances are that he would have bled to death.

A FELLOW representing himself as one of the firm of H. S. Cox & Co., of nowhere, and as he said authorized to take orders for a Mt. Paluk nursery, has been victimizing susceptible farmers of Texas township, DeWitt county. He sold a bill of trees to one man and took as part payment horse, saddle and bridle. He got a lot of notes and traded them for another quadrupled outfit. The fellow disappeared and now it crops out, according to the Clinton Democrat, that he was a base fraud, and our citizens and farmers will do well to be on the lookout for men of his ilk, and patronize our home nurserymen.

CHAS. BROS. HEARD FROM.—Ladies' kid or pebble kid lined Newport ties for only $1.00; they are good. Remember the sign of the big boot upside down, P. O. Block. mar30d3t

THE NAUTICAL COMIC OPERA.

Dickson's Fifth Avenue Comic Opera Company, consisting of a dozen males and as many females, appeared at the opera house last night, presenting the nautical opera of Her Majesty's Ship Pinfure. The only scenery used was that of the deck of a ship anchored in Portsmouth harbor, giving the audience a partial view of the Atlantic and a glimpse of old England. The plot of the opera is exceedingly simple and thin—a gauzy love affair in which an English tar and the captain's daughter fall hopelessly in love with each other; of course, insurmountable objections arise because of the lover's low origin, which give rise to some excellent singing and ordinary acting. Dick Dendey, whose make-up is not only in bad taste but repulsive, tried to awe the spectators with his remarkable gymnastic exhibitions. He has a splendid voice, which is all that can be said of him. The choruses were very good, and were the only redeeming feature of the entertainment, as the "beautiful" young ladies that Rogers talked about were certainly the homeliest gang of painted gazelles that ever stood at right angles on the opera house stage. The opera ends by the marriage of the lovers, and altogether it was a fair musical entertainment.

THE WARD SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.

The usual examination at the close of the spring term of the ward schools took place yesterday. In the forenoon the attendance of visitors was very small, but in the afternoon there was a larger turnout, especially in the second and third wards. As stated yesterday, the examinations showed our schools to be in fine condition, and, without exception, the exercises were highly creditable to both teachers and pupils. The exercises witnessed by our reporter showed thoroughness in instruction and a clear conception on the part of the pupil of the subjects in hand. We understand that committees of examination were appointed in the several wards, who, we presume, will make reports of the exercises in detail as soon as such reports can be prepared. From all that can be learned in a general way, it is evident that the schools of this year are fully as good in all respects as in years past, and the teachers have evidently aimed to do their whole duty. We take the liberty to suggest that more frequent calls at the school room by parents would be a source of encouragement to both teachers and scholars, and especially on examination days, should they give the help of their presence as generally as possible.

ELECTION OF CEMETERY OFFICERS.

The stockholders of Greenwood Cemetery held an election yesterday at the county clerk's office, for the choice of president, secretary, treasurer and three directors for the ensuing year. Sixty-six votes were cast, resulting in the election of J. R. Gorin, president; R. H. Montgomery, secretary and treasurer; H. B. Durfee, Wm. A. Barnes and Wm. L. Hammer, directors.

DRAMATIC.—Next on the programme of entertainments at the Opera House is Maggie Mitchell, in the exciting drama, "Lore," in which character she fully sustains the enviable reputation she has made as "Funchon" in "The Little Girl from the Street."

The five-act drama of "Lore," or the Artistic Theatre, was given last night to a delighted audience. The market of the drama which Miss Maggie Mitchell aroused by her acting, by no less than three calls before the curtain, and I wish applause as the play proceeded.

ON THE.—That Max Strakosch, after hearing the male quartette at the Little concert on Thursday evening, remarked, "dey sing pretty well for chentlemen mit out any education," which opinion he said to have backed up by a proposition to hire them at a salary of $100 per week. But they scorned such a niggardly affair.

ALUMNI NOTICE.

There will be a joint meeting of all the committees appointed at the last meeting of the Alumni Association, at the superintendent's office in the high school building, on Monday evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Fatal Accident to an Employee of the Warrensburg Tile Factory.

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock a young man named Aaron Kreitzer, aged 17 years, an employee of Kepler's tile factory at Warrensburg, met with a horrible and instantaneous death. He was engaged in carrying molded tiling from the machine to the drying yard, and in an idle moment came too near the cog wheels, one 18 inches and the other 30 inches in diameter. It is supposed that the young man was reaching over the wheels, as he was caught in the wheels under the arm-pits and his clothing and breast torn in shreds and crushed to a jelly, death ensuing instantly. The machine was stopped as quickly as possible, and the lifeless form, all mutilated and covered with blood, taken to the home of the bereaved parents.

The funeral of the deceased will occur to-morrow, Rev. W. H. Covert, of this city, officiating.

Miss Dollie Millikin, Decatur's charming and accomplished pianist, took her departure this morning for Terre Haute, her temporary home. She accompanied the celebrated prima donna, Litta, in the grand concert at the tabernacle Thursday evening, and was warmly received by her friends, who have a pardonable pride in her many accomplishments. Litta expressed herself much pleased with Dollie's rendition, and the noted opera manager, Max Strakosch, informed our reporter that she was one of the most gifted pianists he had ever heard, stating that he was glad that the beautiful city of Decatur had such a fine pianist to accompany his song queen.

J. S. HYND & Co., in postoffice block, want everybody to know that they have, positively, the finest, most stylish and cheapest line of wall-paper, window shades and nobby fixtures ever introduced in this city. House cleaning time is at hand, and the ladies will find it to their interest to call and inspect the stock.

GO IN NEWS.—Manager Haines informs us that Max Strakosch positively promised him to bring his opera company to Decatur, after his return from California. The date is not fixed, but Mr. Strakosch has promised to set the time as soon as his other engagements will permit. This will be the greatest musical event in the history of Decatur, and Mr. Strakosch may depend upon the biggest audience that was ever gathered together in this city.

LETTERING in concert in Decatur last evening. Her appearance was the great musical event of the year in this city. Strakosch received $250 for her services. She returns to Chicago to-day, where her company is now singing in opera. Mrs. J. L. Burham was with her last evening. As will be seen from a Springfield dispatch published in to-day's paper, Dr. Lewis H. Mason is on trial in the U. S. District court for circulating counterfeit money. Mason's home is at Nega, Ill., and at one time was quite intimate with the wife of the notorious Pete McCartney, who is also in the clutches of the law for shooting the "queer."

The evidence discloses the fact that Dr. Mason in company with Pete, paid Decatur a visit on or about October 7, 1870, and then skipped out, but before he had got rid of a counterfeit $20 bill at each of the following places: Billy Niedermeyer and Skelley's grocery stores and at R. C. Crocker's hardware store. Peter Hoffman who received the $20 bill at Crocker's, Michael Skelley and Billy Niedermeyer are in Springfield and testified yesterday. Hoffman recognized Mason on sight.

Roman Michael Cooney got drunk yesterday and while in that condition he claims that he fell among thieves who partially stripped him of his raiment and departed, leaving him half dead. The thieves got twenty-two dollars in money which Michael had tucked down in his boot leg. He thinks he knows who took his money and purpose to make them smart for it.
